Wayne Grove, Le Moyne College
Friday, March 13, 11:00AM - 12:15PM in SG MH 2405
Wayne Grove is a professor at Le Moyne College. His work cover a wide range of applied microeconomics settings, especially education. Some of his recent work focuses on winner-take-all labor markets in which a very small number of people end up with big payouts. He will be presenting work on gender stereotype de-biasing.

Andrii Parkhomenko, University of Southern California
Friday, March 20, 1:30-2:45PM in SG MH 1303
Andrii Parkhomenko is a professor at the University of Southern California. His work focuses on macroeconomics as well as regional and urban economics. Some of his recent work looks at the macroeconomic impacts of land use regulation.

Catalina Amuedo-Dorantes, UC Merced and San Diego State
Friday, April 10, 1:30PM - 2:45PM in SG MH 1303
Catalina Amuedo-Dorantes is a professor at both University of California Merced and San Diego State University, and an IZA fellow. Her work focuses on labor economics, international migration, and remittances. Her recent work looks at the impacts of immigration policy on undocumented and high-skill immigrants.

Please contact nhuntington-klein@fullerton.edu with questions.